Shades

A friend once said every day is a day like no other, and I agreed! But lately, I've been doing the Marmalade (sweet, with bitter rinds): the struggle to get work done and rest. Someone referred to "existential angst" ... yes, and that too! But I'm managing to keep my spirit on the up and forward.

How are you?

Upcoming

Our next performance will be in Shades of Black, a showcase including dance, music, spoken word, capoeira and drumming. A wonderful delight featuring artists from the South Dallas Cultural Center!

Trish / Rose

Patricia “Trish” Elmore was born in Dallas Texas and grew up in the Pleasant Grove area. She graduated from Booker T Washington High School and has had the opportunity to dance alongside Pilobolus Dance Company and Erykah Badu. Trish grew up around dance and took her first ballet class when she was 12 years old as a student at W.E. Greiner Exploratory Arts Academy. Trish hopes to dance alongside more stars to amplify her movement while dancing, and hopes to teach and inspire other young artists to be confident and chase their dreams.

RoseMarie Sanders is a dancer born and raised in the DFW area. She is trained in modern, ballet, hip-hop, theater jazz, and improvisation, but has learned many other styles to expand her knowledge. Sanders was a part of BDC from 2013-18 as an apprentice/professional dancer before pursuing her education at a Bachelor of Arts in Dance Studies with a Minor in Small Business from Texas Woman’s University. She has since returned for the 29th anniversary and is continuing to grow as a performer. And she’ll be in our Thirtieth!
